Another resident expressed his concern with tension he sees in students in the district. He feels that this would be a good barometer of the climate in the district and a good avenue for discussion.

Another resident expressed concern with the climate in the district.

Mr. Cavalli addressed the issue of the renewal of the supervisor saying that the board will continue to review the situation.

Mr. Cavalli agrees that culture is important to any organization but feels that there is a lot of misinformation being circulated throughout the district and says the board will look for opportunities to collaborate on issues further with staff members. Mr. Cavalli added that the board (by law) is limited in its role as to what they can do.

Mr. Cavalli noted that the strategic planning process is continuing to become more collaborative, and the board is seeking advice from outside the district to help with the implementation.

Thanks to MTEA Philanthropic Chairs – Ms. Evangeline Thornton, Mr. David Gordon, and Ms. June Beckford Smith for producing the show and Ms. Jamie Meeker for overseeing the scholarship committee.

Thanks to the NJEA for funding the grant that makes Music From the Heart possible. We could not have done this without the efforts of Mr. Pete Vala and Ms. Ginny Lucas. They do this for a love of the show and are not paid a dime for any of their time.

Our final MTEA public relations event is this Thursday night – Special Olympics Award Ceremony and Dinner Party. Special thanks to Ms. Audrey Rosenthal, high school special education teacher, for organizing this event for our Montgomery Special Olympic athletes, and to our PRIDE co-chairs, Ms. Karen Winters and Ms. Chrissy Hazynski. Mr. Wirsul expressed concern over the cost effectiveness of Performance Matters' use in the district.

Mr. Brett Borowski expressed his concern over the fact that MHS graduation will be held indoors this year and asked for an update on the track construction that is causing the indoor graduation. He suggested the district simulcast the event.
