

R 5550 DISAFFECTED STUDENTS

A. Grades Kindergarten through 6

1. Each student's work habits, behavior, products, and records will be continually monitored for signs of disaffection by teaching staff members responsible for the student's instructional program. Such signs of disaffection might include, but need not be limited to, the student's:
  - a. Working below potential,
  - b. Depressed standard test scores,
  - c. Excessive absenteeism or truancy,
  - d. Change in personality or work habits,
  - e. Marked irritability, lassitude, or hypersensitivity.
2. The teacher or other professional staff member who observes signs that a student may be disaffected will confer with the Director of Special Services. If it is determined that concern about the student's welfare is warranted, the student's parent or legal guardian will be called in and made aware of the problems, and steps to deal with the student's disabling attitude will be proposed.
3. Once a student is identified as disaffected, steps to offset the effects of disaffection may be initiated. Such steps may include:
  - a. A meeting with the learning disabilities teacher consultant to help teachers shape classroom strategies that might reduce disaffection,
  - b. Building on the student's strengths to help bolster his or her sense of self-worth,
  - c. Providing instructional alternatives to stimulate the student's interest by utilizing such devices as calculators, computers, educational games, and teaching machines,
