Orchard Hill Elementary School Cafeteria

BUSINESS MEETING AGENDA

2026-2027 District Goals

Goal 1: The Student Experience: Student Achievement, Teaching, and Learning

For the 2026-2027 school year, the district will prioritize instructional excellence by expanding a collaborative Universal Design for Learning (UDL) lesson library, integrating purposeful AI use to enhance efficiency, and embedding executive function skills into the curriculum. Simultaneously, the district will strengthen organizational growth by updating curricular standards in Rubicon Atlas, formalizing community partnerships, and fostering internal faculty leadership to drive professional development.

Goal 2: Communication, Community Engagement, and Outreach

Building upon our established social media and administrative channels, the district will enhance community engagement by refining communication formats, using stakeholder feedback, and National School Public Relations Association (NSPRA) survey data. Additionally, we will continue to grow our township partnership and leverage relationships with parent organizations to foster strong, well-informed, two-way communication essential for student success.

Goal 3: Climate and Culture (Social-Emotional Learning (SEL)-Cultural Sensitivity, Health and Wellness, Resilience)

The district will continue to enhance the social-emotional learning environment by expanding the interdisciplinary SEL framework to promote student resilience and healthy life choices. We will align codes of conduct and core values across all schools to instill responsibility, respect, and consistent behavioral expectations. MTSD will continuously cultivate an inclusive, supportive culture where every student's well-being is uplifted and celebrated.
